SECURES CHANGE OF VENUE.

Detective Charged With Picking a Pocket Gets New Bondsman.

Frank White, the detective of the Protective Home Federation, who was arrested about three weeks ago on a charge of picking a pocket at Denmar Garden and for whose rearrest after he was released on bond an alias warrant was issued, yesterday asked for and was granted a change of venue when his case was called before Justice Campbell.

White's case was called last Friday, but he failed to respond.

E. S. Lewis, who qualified as his surety when he was released from the Clayton jail, decided that he had enough yesterday and refused to sign the new bond for his release. President Carlos of the Epworth Hotel was accepted in his stead at the request of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Gardner.

The case against Ed Sawyer, who was arrested with White, was dismissed, as there was no evidence against him.

White is now threatening to retaliate by going before the special grand jury at Clayton next week and divulging information that he says, he has in his possession.

Business Men's League to Entertain Philippine Commissioners at Glen Echo Golf Game.

Cyrus P. Walbridge, the Republican candidate for Governor, announced at a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Business Men's League, held yesterday afternoon, that as president of the League for the last three years he had been careful not to admit politics into the organization and therefore he would ask that during the campaign for the next three months, J. E. Smith, second vice president of the Simmons Hardware Company, who is first vice president of the League, should act as president of the League.

Those present besides Mr. Walbridge were: H. H. Wernse, president of the Merchants' Exchange; George J. Tansey, W. H. Davidson, St. Louis, vice president; Whitlaw, James F. Coyle, E. P. Teasdale, W. K. Kavanaugh, James E. Smith, treasurer; and E. S. Tompkins and Secretary William F. Jewell Saunders.

The Executive Committee perfected the details of an entertainment to be given to the visiting Philippine Commissioners by the League and the Merchants' Exchange this evening at the Glen Echo Club, and selected a committee to take charge of the Philippine Commissioners, choosing particularly those who can speak Spanish fluently.

The Commissioners will be taken by a special Wabash train from the World's Fair grounds to the Glen Echo Club, accompanied by a special train. They will have a dinner served at dark. Addresses upon the commercial relation of the United States and the Philippines will be made by Mr. Walbridge, Governor E. O. Stanard, Doctor W. P. LOOKING FOR A LOCATION.
Excise Commissioner Selbert Trying to Find Offices for State Committee.

State Chairman W. N. Evans of the Democratic Committee is expected back from West Plains to-morrow or Thursday to attend the first meeting of the new committee. Until the committee meets, there is little gossip regarding what will be done.

Excise Commissioner J. M. Selbert was commissioned by Judge Evans to try and find a suitable location for the new headquarters. It has been settled that they will be in the Hotel, owing to the World's Fair, Offices have been located in the House, Equitable and Commonwealth buildings. The present headquarters are in the Commonwealth, but the room is small.

FIGHT FOR CONTROL OF CITY BEGINS

Setting of Date for Democratic Primary Means Start of the Butler Battle.

WILL BE 258 DELEGATES.

Convention Will Be Made Up of Men Selected Five Weeks Before—Prospects for Many Contests.

Politicians are wondering just what the effect of the Democratic City Committee's action in calling a primary for September 6, with a convention October 11, will be. That it is the forerunner of one of the hardest fights for party control in St. Louis seems to be a foregone conclusion, but just how the cards will lay after the nominations are made remains to be seen.

The new election law enters into every charge that is made regarding the action of the committee. It is conceded on every hand that the Butler members of the committee arranged the matters beforehand and were fully determined upon their course. They intend to control the selection of a Circuit Attorney if such a thing is possible.

The call of the committee gives candidates and leaders five weeks to influence the delegates who will be in the convention. It will be an innovation in St. Louis politics, where it has been usual for the convention to be held within two days of the primaries.

BASIS OF REPRESENTATION.
The basis of representation is one delegate at large for each ward and one delegate for every 200 votes cast for Judge Valiant in 1902. On this basis the ward representation in the convention will be as follows:

On this basis, if the Butler count the Third, Fourth, Fifth, Tenth, Fourteenth, Fifteenth, Sixteenth, Twenty-second, Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth wards, they will have 113 votes in the convention. If on this basis the Butler count the Twenty-fifth, and possibly may be able to deliver it, if he does the Butler will have 123 votes, or seven less than a majority.

TEST OF BUTLER'S POWER.
It is confidently expected that Butler's supremacy in some of these wards will be tested. Thomas E. Kinney in the Fourth has usually been independent. In the Sixteenth it is a fight between "Dan" Norton and Committee man John J. Sheehan. In the Twenty-fifth it is a fight between the Butler and the Twenty-fifth ward, which is not eliminated. He has always been able heretofore to do as he pleased in the Twenty-fifth ward by gathering around him active young Democrats who are opposed to Butler methods.

The attitude of Police Commissioner Blong is one of the considerations in the fight. He is usually independent to a certain degree. If he works with the Butlers he will have influence in the Twenty-fifth ward and Twenty-sixth wards. It is not thought that he will consent to be classed with them.

Hawes and Stuever, if they unite, will control the city. Stuever, who is usually independent, will remain for future determination. At present it is said that Stuever is taking no part in the fight. He is usually independent. He has not entered actively into his old line of work since his return from the Jefferson Hotel. He is usually independent. He is usually independent. He is usually independent.

In the primaries the present registration will be used. The registration of the Butlers, especially if they use their own judges and clerks. Where independent registration is used, the sides will have representation. The new election law, with its new registration, will go into force September 6, 1904, when precinct registration will take place. Revision day will be October 11.

Commitment to be made by Circuit Attorney, Assistant Circuit Attorney, five Circuit Judges, Public Administrator, three State Senators and sixteen members of the House of Representatives.
